

IMPLEMENTING THE EUROPEAN LANDSCAPE CONVENTION THROUGH EDUCATION:

“The European Landscape Masters course initiative”

Title of the Masters course

European Masters course in landscape protection, management and planning

Acronym

U-scape

Goal

Training experts in landscape protection, management and planning in compliance with the principles of the European Landscape Convention

Final Partners;

- University of Sevilla, Spain (project co-ordinator).
- University of Faro, Portugal.
- University of Napoli, Italy.
- University of Nova Gorica, Slovenia.
- University of Paris La Vilette, France.

Associated partners: UNISCAPE, RECEP-ENELC, possibly others.

- Currently applying for Erasmus Mundus (deadline 29 April 2011)
- First edition if awarded: September 2012- September 2014
- The Consortium is currently working on the following issues:
 - Signing of the Consortium agreement.
 - Full application form.
 - Final details on contents of the course and mobility.
 - Possible modification of the agreement letters.

STRUCTURE

Duration

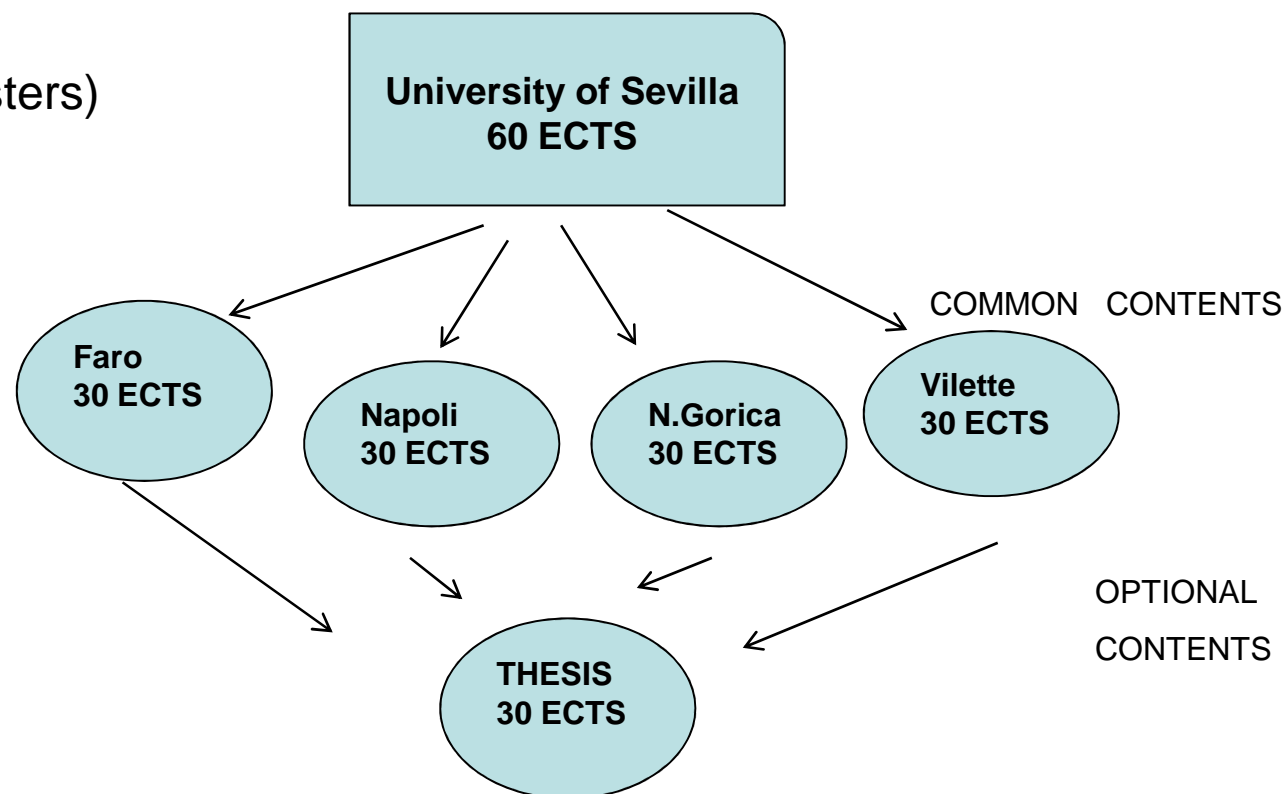

120 ECTS (4 semesters)

Mobility

First year: semesters 1 & 2

Second year: semester 3

semester 4 : THESIS

30 ECTS final thesis optional between Faro, Napoli, Nova Gorica and La Vilette.

CONTENTS OF THE MASTERS COURSE

- > The concept of landscape and principles of the ELC
- > Landscape identification and characterisation
- > Landscape quality objectives and public participation
- > Landscape and public policies
- > Protection of natural and heritage landscapes
- > Management of rural landscapes
- > Management and enhancement of urban landscapes
- > Integration of public infrastructures in the landscape
- > Transversal workshop: Methods, techniques and materials for landscape management and design

Final thesis or practicum